

How to have your say

We want to hear from you. Your feedback will help shape the revised Australian Curriculum: Languages

Get to know the consultation Australian Curriculum: Languages

The consultation version of the Australian Curriculum: Languages is available in 3 formats. Choose the one that best suits you:

- All elements: the introductory information and all the curriculum details
- Scope and sequence: proposed content descriptions and achievement standards only
- Comparative information: current and proposed content descriptions and achievement standards.

Become familiar with the survey format and questions

All feedback is through online surveys. If you wish, you can download the surveys to become familiar with the questions prior to completing it online.

The surveys can be completed individually or you can submit a group response.

The proposed content descriptions and elaborations have codes. Use these codes when you want to make reference to a specific content description or elaboration in the survey.

Complete the survey

You can find a link to the surveys on the website as well as in the banner. You can respond to:

- Australian Curriculum: Languages: German, Indonesian, Korean, Modern Greek and Spanish

If you want to save your survey feedback and come back at another time to complete it, read and follow these instructions.

Take the time to read the terms and conditions so you know how your feedback will be used by ACARA.
